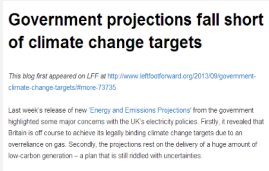
UNIVERSITY OF EXETER
Energy Policy Group

Activity Summary

October 2013

This newsletter summarises the recent outputs from the Energy Policy Group

EPG Blog



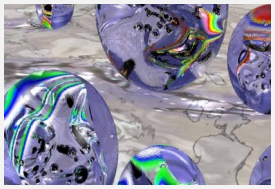
Jimmy Aldridge
Government projections fall short of climate change targets (2/10)
http://blogs.exeter.ac.uk/energy/2013/10/02/government-projections-fall-short-of-climate-change-targets/

Caroline Kuzemko
Why the UK's politics are incapable of governing energy (10/2)
http://blogs.exeter.ac.uk/energy/2013/10/10/why-the-uks-politics-are-incapable-of-governing-energy/

IGov Blog

Tom Steward
The Solution to Rising Bills is Demand Reduction and Courage in Leadership (25/10) http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/new-thinking-blog-the-solution-to-rising-bills-is-demand-reduction-and-courage-in-leadership/

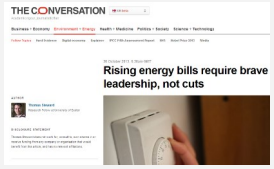
Catherine Mitchell
The Nuclear Announcement – a Pyrrhic victory? (21/10)
http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/new-thinking-blog-the-nuclear-announcement-a-pyrrhic-victory/



Richard Hoggett
Energy Transitions and Technology Scale (14/10)
http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/new-thinking-blog-energy-transitions-and-technology-scale/

Matthew Lockwood
Green Energy Costs and Competitiveness (8/10)
http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/new-thinking-blog-green-energy-costs-and-competitiveness/

Other Blogs



Tom Steward
Rising energy bills require brave leadership, not cuts. The Conversation (30/10)
http://theconversation.com/rising-energy-bills-require-brave-leadership-not-cuts-19680

UNIVERSITY OF EXETER Energy Policy Group

Activity Summary

October 2013

Journal Papers

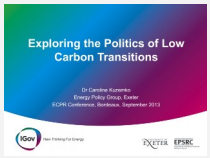
Accepted

- 'Energy, Ideas and Power: Explaining EU-Russia Energy Relations' (2014) Journal of European Public Policy, 21, 1: http://www.tandfonline.com/eprint/rdq7NJWYWihkFYzm2Enj/full

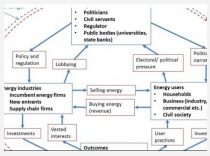
Under Review

- Energy and Depoliticisation: the Forgotten Public Policy Issue', submitted to BJPIR September 2013

Events



Caroline Kuzemko
Presentation on 'Energy Depoliticisation in the UK: Destroying Political Capacity', given to Policy and Politics Conference, Bristol.



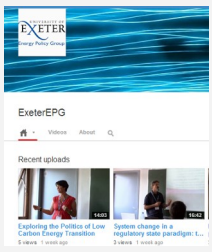
Matthew Lockwood
'Varieties of capitalism and the politics of sustainable energy transitions', given to SPRU, University of Sussex, 25th October 2013 http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/presentation-varieties-of-capitalism-and-the-politics-of-sustainable-energy-transitions/

Shane Fudge
Community Energy, given at the Community Energy Workshop, University of Exeter, Penryn Campus, 30th October 2013 http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/wp-content/uploads/2013/11/2.-Shane-Fudge.pdf

Community Energy Workshop—30th October 2013
All the presentations from our recent workshop with the University of Exeter ESI and now available: http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/community-energy-workshop-30th-october-2013/

The agenda for the day is here: http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/wp-content/uploads/2013/11/

EPG YouTube Channel



Community Energy Workshop
Presentations from the EPG/ESI Community Event held on 30th October can be accessed on the EPG Youtube Channel: http://projects.exeter.ac.uk/igov/wp-content/uploads/2013/11/Community-Energy-Agenda.pdf